BUSINESS LICENSE INFORMATION

Any person engaged in business as a contractor in the construction industry must provide a certificate of coverage for workers' compensation or an affidavit of exemption.

All applicants conducting business where goods are sold at retail must provide a statement from the Department of Revenue stating no tax is due.

Any business operating within the city limits of Warrensburg is required to obtain a business license. This pertains to any business selling a product or providing a service of any kind (even if their business location is not within the city limits).

Some businesses are required to obtain a license that requires liability insurance and a background check of the applicant to insure public safety such as a door to door solicitor.

In the event the business wishes to sell/serve alcohol a separate application process is needed to obtain the licensing.

A general license application, partial fee list and applicable ordinances are provided with this brochure.

A complete list of fees and information are available from the City Collector in the upper level of City Hall 102-A S. Holden St., Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
