

BILL NO. _____

ORDINANCE NO. _____

AN ORDINANCE REPEALING AND REPLACING SECTION 27-203 OF THE CODE OF CITY ORDINANCES OF THE CITY OF WARRENSBURG REGARDING HOME OCCUPATIONS IN RESIDENTIAL DISTRICTS

WHEREAS, the City wishes to encourage entrepreneurship and local business; and

WHEREAS, home occupations provide an affordable and appropriate setting for many small business; and

WHEREAS, the nature of home business operations has evolved with changes in technology and consumer preferences;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF WARRENSBURG AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. That Section 27-203, Home Occupations in Residential Districts, is repealed and replaced as follows:

Sec. 27-203. - Home occupations in residential districts.

(a) Intent and purpose. The conduct of certain businesses (home occupations, as defined in section 27-6) in residential neighborhoods may be permitted under the provisions of this section. It is the intent of this regulation to:

- (1) Ensure the compatibility of home occupations with the residential neighborhood in which they are located;
- (2) Maintain and preserve the residential character of residential neighborhoods; and
- (3) Guarantee to all residents freedom from excessive noise, excessive traffic, parking congestion, nuisance, fire hazard, and other possible effects of commercial uses being conducted in residential areas.

(b) Registration of home occupations.

- (1) Persons operating home occupations shall register their business with the zoning official. Failure to register a home occupation is a violation of this chapter.
- (2) Unless otherwise exempted by city code, all home occupations must maintain a valid Business License, which must be renewed annually.
- (3) Registration of a home occupation covers one individual at a specific location and is not transferable. An applicant must register a home occupation only once provided that the location and the business activity remain the same. If the applicant moves to a different location or business activity changes in the intensity of the use or the services offered, a new home occupation registration is required.

- (4) If the zoning official notifies the registrant their home occupation is not lawful, the registrant may appeal the decision to the planning and zoning commission.
  - (5) Where state certification, registration, or licensing is required, such certification shall be presented with the home occupation registration form.
  - (6) Telecommuting activities are exempt from home occupation registration where employees of a business, located at another location, perform work for the business in their own residence, provided all physical contact between the business, customers, and the employee occurs at the place of business and not the residence.
- (c) Prohibited home occupation. The following shall not be permitted as home occupations, except for services limited to administrative offices for said businesses:
- (1) Automotive, vehicle, trailer, recreational vehicle, or heavy machinery service or repair including but not limited to: engine work, body work, painting, washing, detailing services, windows glass replacement, or accessory parts sales and installation.
  - (2) Vehicle towing operations.
  - (3) Funeral home or mortuary.
  - (4) Retail stores including but not limited to: gift shops, boutique stores, antiques stores, pawn shops, or second-hand shops.
  - (5) Taxi or shuttle services.
  - (6) Private schools with organized classes.
  - (7) Rental businesses.
  - (8) Restaurants or mobile food vendors.
  - (9) Veterinarian Clinics, animal hospitals, boarding, kennels, or stables.
- (d) Permitted home occupations. The following is a non-exhaustive list of examples of enterprises that may be home occupations if they meet the performance standards in paragraph (e), below:

  - (10) Barber shops, beauty, hair, or massage services.
  - (11) Cabinet building, carpentry shops.
  - (12) Photo studios.
  - (13) Repair or cleaning services.
  - (14) Lawn and landscaping services.
- (e) Performance standards. To be allowed as a permitted home occupation, all of the following conditions must be satisfied:
- (1) Multiple home occupations may be permitted within a single residence; however, all home occupation activities in the aggregate must comply with Section 27-203.
  - (2) The home occupation shall be located in the principal residential building. The area utilized for all home occupations shall not exceed twenty-five (25) percent of the gross floor area of the dwelling unit in which it is located, except for licensed day care homes. Day care homes may exceed this percentage, provided that the day care home meets the floor space requirements of the State of Missouri. Under no circumstances shall the day care or other home occupation be carried on within a detached accessory building.
  - (3) No goods, stock in trade, or other commodities shall be displayed or stored outdoors, or be displayed at any exterior window.
  - (4) The home occupation shall not cause an alteration in the appearance of the structure, nor be conducted in a manner which would cause the premises to differ from its residential character either by the use of colors, materials, construction, lighting, or the emission of sounds, noises, odors, dust, vibrations, or traffic generated.
  - (5) One (1) sign pertaining to the home occupation shall be permitted. The sign shall be attached flat against the building, shall not be illuminated, and shall not exceed four (4) square feet in area.
  - (6) Home occupations shall be personally operated, conducted, managed and supervised by a person who is a resident of the dwelling. The number of nonresidents engaged or employed on the premises in the home occupation shall not exceed two (2).
  - (7) The use of mechanical or electrical equipment which interferes with radio or television reception, or any activity which creates noise, vibration, smoke, dust, odors, heat, or glare shall be prohibited. No highly explosive or combustible material shall be used or stored on the premises.

- (8) No retail or wholesale products shall be sold directly to customers on the premises unless it is conducted entirely by mail or by occasional home invitation for pick-up. Incidental sales are permitted in conjunction with other permitted home occupations (i.e. beauty salon selling hair products to a visiting customer).
  - (9) There shall be no regular and steady visitation or concentrated coming and going of clients or off-site employees to or from the premises. Customers are limited to no more than ten (10) per day and are limited to the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., except that day care homes are limited to the hours of 5:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.
  - (10) An attached garage shall not be used for a home occupation if such use has the effect of eliminating required parking.
  - (11) The home occupation shall not involve the use of commercial vehicles for delivery of materials to or from the premises, other than one (1) vehicle (not to exceed one (1) ton rating) owned by the resident of the dwelling, which shall be parked in an adequate off-street parking area.
  - (12) All home occupations shall provide a sufficient number of off-street parking spaces to accommodate the primary use of the building as well as the number of vehicles associated with the home occupation. Parking for home occupations shall comply with the following standards:
    - a) Parking generated by the conduct of a home occupation shall be subject to one off-street parking space per 300 square of home occupation business space or 1 space per each non-resident employee, whichever is greater.
    - b) For single-family and two-family dwellings, required off-street parking for home occupations is in addition to the required parking set forth in Section 27-406 for the residential use.
    - c) Parking generated by home occupations within multi-family buildings shall not exceed more than 5% of the required off-street parking for the building.
- (f) Existing home occupations. A nonconforming home occupation which was lawfully established and in operation on _____(the date the regulation is adopted) may be continued indefinitely, provided that all performance standards outlined in paragraph (h) are complied with within six (6) months of the effective date of this chapter.
