

MOST INCLUSIVE COMMUNITY PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, recognition of the contributions of persons with disabilities is an effective way to overcome negative stereotypes and eliminate physical and attitudinal barriers to full participation in all aspects of community life; and

WHEREAS, people with disabilities are an important, vital part of our community as valued workers, civic leaders, business owners, veterans, family members, and friends, and they are innovative and valued contributors; and

WHEREAS, the City of Warrensburg is committed to ensuring that City programs and employment practices effectively serve and benefit persons of all abilities in order to support individual dignity, self-reliance and productive lives for all people; and

WHEREAS, the City of Warrensburg is proud to proclaim its continued dedication to fostering equal access and demonstrating commitment to full inclusion of people with disabilities; and

WHEREAS, the City of Warrensburg would like to be a shining example of inclusiveness by striving to create ways for all people to be fully recognized and integrated in all aspects of their community. This example would go beyond the good practices of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 ("ADA") and foster elements such as sensory experience, braille signage, and other adaptive technologies in our public spaces.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Scott Holmberg, Mayor of the City of Warrensburg, do hereby proclaim that the City of Warrensburg, Missouri desires to be known as the most inclusive community in the United States of America.

Dated this 25th day of April, 2022.

ATTEST:

Jodi L. Schneider, City Clerk

Scott Holmberg, Mayor
Jim Kushner, Chairman Pro Tem
Nolan Brooks, Council Member
Casey Lund, Council Member
Tarl Bentley, Council Member