What is your knowledge of the advisory Board/Commission you're applying for?	A planning and zoning commission acts a public forum and check to ensure the city's planning and zoning code and comprehensive zoning plan is adhered to. In my job as a licensed architect I have submitted to many different planning and zoning commissions. I understand the reasoning behind zoning codes and see how their implementation can improve the built environment.
List any experience or skills you have that qualify you for this position.	City resident, Licensed Architect, Advocate for livable towns
